Berkeley, California.

Dear Mr. Koff,

Upon a visit to Beirut a few weeks ago, I discovered by chance "The Dynamics of Neutralism in the Arab World - a Symposium", including my article on Syria and Neutralism. Prof. Fayeiz Sayegh, whom I also met in Beirut, told me then that 5 copies of the book are being sent to me. As up till now I have not received anything, I would be most grateful if you could see to it that whatever number of copies I am entitled to are sent to the Syrian Consulate General in New York at the following address: 527 Madison Avenue, Suite 1420, New York, N.Y.

You may also remember that upon sending the manuscript to you, I requested 20 reprints at which time you kindly promised that they will be sent once the article is published. Should that be possible, I would greatly appreciate receiving them. I have asked Dr. Sabah Kabbani, our Consul General in New York to contact Chandler Publishing Co. in San Francisco with a view to securing copies of the book and the reprints. Your kind attention to this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Yours sincerely,

George J. Tomeh

Dr. Sabah Kabbani,
Miss Catherine Brown.
