CALLS FOR SETTLEMENT — Contd. (p. 5)

BY MINISTER OF DEVELOPMENT AND OF TOURISM, MOSHE KOL:

On 11 Jan. 68, he urged that Jews settle in Jerusalem without delay. (He was addressing the Central Committee of the Independent Liberal Party, of which he is Chairman).

(Jer. Post, Jan 12, 68, p. 6)

OTHERS, TOO...

Ben-Gurion, visiting the Nahal outpost at Kfar Etzion on 29 Nov 67, called for the settlement of the Hebron hills by a Jewish manufacturing community.

(Jer. Post, 30 Nov 67, p 6)

Members of the Knesset issue such calls almost at every meeting.

Haim Hadari, secretary of the Kibbutz Meuchad movement (affiliated with Ahdut Ha Avoda), on April 16, 1968, "urged speedy action for the settlement of the new territories" (Jerusalem Post, 17 April 68, p 8)

And Mrs. Senta Josephtal, secretary of the Shut Ha-Kibbutzim ve Kavotsot movement, "urged the establishment of more settlements in the newly liberated areas". (Jer. Post, 7 July 68, p 8)
